In Poca. Co. he was quite a prominent citizen. He was a member of the Va. Leg. from Poca., Co., one or more terms; a magistrate; and county Assessor; and deputy Sheriff. Around 1840 he moved away to Lewis Co. near Leading Creek, then later to Burning Springs, Wirt Co., and finally to Ravenswood, Jackson Co., W. Va. When settled he again became a prominent citizen, serving as deputy Sheriff, and public magistrate.
